

Production Operator

Position Summary

Be a part of our unique liquid colorant manufacturing process. We are looking for support on our day shift with our production processes, which includes mixer operators, mill operators, tank washers, pre-batchers, and packers/fillers.

- Mixer operator- operate various mixers while blending dry ingredients into liquid batches
- Mill operator- set up batches to run through mills, monitor batches as they run, and tear down/clean mills
- Tank washer- perform automatic and manual cleaning of our process tanks to prepare them for the next new batch
- Pre-batcher- the first step in our batch process, where ingredients are pulled, weighed, and dispensed into a process tank
- Packer/Filler- the last step in our batch process, where finished product is filled into containers to customer specification to be shipped out

Duties and Responsibilities

- Accurate use of scales
- Proper use of equipment and hand tools
- Safe driving of tow motors
- Reading and understanding batch cards/ recipes
- Some positions require basic use of Ipad and bar code scanner
- Follow proper procedures learned in training that relate to safety and quality
- Fosters and administers a proper safety environment
- Use assigned protective gear (PPE) as required
- Maintain attention to detail, accuracy, and cleanliness for each batch produced

Qualifications and Skills

- Basic math skills, reading, and comprehension
- Ability to perform physical labor (ex. may lift up to 55lbs)
- Punctual, reliable, and attentive
- Tow motor experience a plus
- Able to follow all Safety Rules and be safety conscious
- Safety boots or shoes are required
- Passing pre-employment drug screen and background check required

Education and Experience

- High school diploma or GED
- Manufacturing experience preferred but will train all candidates

Full-time Employee Benefits:

- Health insurance, vision and dental
- Paid sick days and vacation in first 6 months
- Short-term and long-term disability
- 401K retirement program with company match
- ESOP – employee stock ownership plan
- Profit-sharing bonus program
- Continuing education tuition reimbursement
- Annual safety boot and prescription eyewear program